

‘Learn a Skill’ with Ramblers Countrywide Holidays

Britain’s leading guided walks operator, Ramblers Countrywide Holidays, is offering its clients the opportunity of ‘learning a skill’ whilst enjoying the pleasure of walking.

Two ‘skills’ featured in the company’s latest brochure include:

WALKING WITH YOUR CAMERA – a 4 night tour in the glorious Lake District under the watchful eye of professional photographer, David Lewins (www.davidlewins.co.uk).

Based at ‘Hassness Country House’, Buttermere, David will help and guide enthusiasts to take quality photographs with their own digital cameras. And, few places can be more inspiring than the Lake District !

Price £344 includes 4 nights full-board accommodation (except for dinner on one night) and the services of a dedicated tour leader.

SINGING FOR PLEASURE – a 4 or 5 night break combining walking and singing with tuition by ‘professionals’, Candy Verney and Penny Lazenby. Whatever your musical ability, one can enjoy this extravaganza which includes: songs from the shows, oratorios, light opera and the great composers.

These breaks are based at Llandrindod Wells in Wales, Church Stretton in the Shropshire Hills and Hassness Country House in the Lake District.

Price £385 includes half-board accommodation and the services of a dedicated tour leader.

www.ramblerscountrywide.co.uk

01707 386 800

For further information please contact Tony Maniscalco, Ramblers Worldwide Holidays 01707 386 755 or grahamross1@btconnect.com 01255 670661